TECHNICAL TOURS
Sunday January 28	7:30am – 4:30pm	*Wildlife and Agriculture – Experience firsthand the interaction between nature and agriculture. The ranches will be in the middle of their winter calving season, and it is during this time that bald eagles and many other bird species can be viewed in one place. Bring your camera!	$80.00		$
Sunday January 28	7:30am – 5:00pm	*Northern Nevada High Desert Rangelands and Rivers – History, geology, and ecology of the Carson and Walker River watersheds: the historic land uses, Native American traditional uses, future desired conditions, and how conservation of the Bi-State greater sage-grouse ties it all together through collaborative planning.	$85.00		$
Thursday February 1	8:00am – 5:00pm	*Wild Horse & Burro Management - Come spend the day learning about wild horses, management successes and challenges, and gaining an understanding of the ecological, biological and political aspects of wild horse management. This tour will hike in a herd management area to view horses in their habitat and tour an inmate training facility	$75.00	SOLD OUT
Thursday February 1	8:30am – 4:30pm	*Targeted Grazing – Learn about local targeted grazing applications for vegetation, weed, and fuels management. We will also discuss recent BLM decisions and what lies ahead for future applications.	$75.00	SOLD OUT
